

Dear [Cousin's Name],

I hope this letter finds you in good health and high spirits! As the festival of Diwali approaches, I couldn't resist writing to you and sharing my excitement for the celebrations.

This year, the house is buzzing with preparations-colorful rangolis at the entrance, twinkling diyas everywhere, and the kitchen is filled with the sweet aromas of mom's homemade treats. It reminds me so much of the times we spent celebrating together, bursting crackers and laughing until our stomachs hurt!

I miss those fun-filled moments with you and truly wish you were here to share in the festivities. Diwali just isn't the same without your jokes and our midnight feasts on laddoos and barfis!

On this special occasion, I wish you and your family immense joy, prosperity, and good health. May the light of Diwali brighten up your life and fill it with happiness. Hoping we can celebrate together next year and make even more wonderful memories.

Do write back and let me know how you're celebrating this year. Give my love to everyone at home!

Wishing you a very happy and sparkling Diwali!

With lots of love,
[Your Name]
