

Informal Letter Sample: Sharing Exam Results with a Friend

Dear [Friend's Name],

I hope this letter finds you in great spirits! I've been meaning to write to you, and I finally have some exciting news to share — I got my exam results!

I was honestly a bundle of nerves before the results came out, but it turned out better than I expected. I scored [Your Marks/Grades] in [Subject/Exam Name]. All those late-night study sessions and hours spent going over notes really paid off. It wasn't always easy, but your support and encouragement kept me going. Remember those times you'd calm me down when I'd panic about not covering enough? Thank you for that!

I learned a lot from this experience — not just the subject matter, but also the importance of staying focused and taking care of myself. If you ever need any tips or just want to vent about your own studies, you know I'm always here.

How are your preparations going? I'd love to hear about what you've been up to! Let's catch up soon, either in person or over the phone.

Take care and keep working hard. I'm rooting for you!

Your friend,
[Your Name]
