Dear Members of the Admissions Committee,

I am writing to thank you for considering my application and for the opportunity to remain on the waitlist for admission to [Medical School Name]. I am deeply honored to be considered for a place in your respected program.

I am writing to reaffirm my strong interest in [Medical School Name]. Your school's commitment to academic excellence and community health aligns perfectly with my career goals and values. If offered admission, I am prepared to accept immediately and am enthusiastic to contribute to and grow within your dynamic learning environment.

Since applying, I have continued to build on my clinical and research experiences. Recently, I have started volunteering at [Hospital/Clinic Name], where I am further developing my skills in patient care and interdisciplinary collaboration. I also completed an independent research project on [briefly describe topic], which has deepened my commitment to advancing medical knowledge and compassionate healthcare delivery.

Thank you for your continued consideration. Please let me know if there is any additional information I can provide to support my candidacy. I remain truly excited about the possibility of joining [Medical School Name] and contributing to your community.

Sincerely,
