

Dear [Friend's Name],

I hope this letter finds you well! I have some amazing news that I just couldn't wait to share with you-I got accepted into [College/University Name]!

Honestly, I still can't believe it! After all those late-night study sessions, endless essays, and nerve-wracking moments waiting for the decision, it's finally official. When I opened the acceptance email, I was so overwhelmed with excitement that I almost screamed out loud! This feels like a dream come true.

I've always talked about wanting to go to [College/University Name], and now that it's really happening, I feel so grateful for all the support and encouragement you've given me throughout the process. You were always there to listen to my worries and cheer me on when I needed it most. I wouldn't have made it this far without you.

I'm both nervous and excited about this new chapter-moving to a new place, meeting new people, and diving into my chosen field of study. There are so many things to look forward to, and I can't wait to share all my future adventures with you.

Thank you again for believing in me! Let's celebrate soon-maybe ice cream on me?

Much love,
[Your Name]
