

Dear Sarah,

I hope this letter finds you in great spirits! I can hardly believe that summer is just around the corner, and I couldn't be more excited about the plans I've been making. I wanted to share everything with you and hear about what you're planning for the holidays too!

This year, my family has decided to take a road trip along the coast. We're starting off in Cape Town and making our way up to Durban, stopping at some amazing beaches and cute little towns along the way. I'm most looking forward to spending a few days at Plettenberg Bay – you know how much I love surfing and trying new seafood dishes!

Besides the road trip, I'm planning to catch up on some good books and maybe even try my hand at painting. I've enrolled in a weekend art class, which should be lots of fun. Of course, no summer is complete without lots of time lounging in the sun with friends, so we absolutely have to meet up for ice cream in the park or arrange a picnic.

What about you? Do you have any exciting adventures lined up, or are you thinking of just relaxing at home this time? If you're free at any point, maybe you could join us for a part of the trip-or we could plan a mini-adventure of our own!

I can't wait to hear all about your summer plans. Let's make this holiday season the best one yet!

Lots of love,

Emma
