

Dear Grandma and Grandpa,

I hope you both are doing well! I've missed you so much and couldn't wait to tell you all about our amazing holiday trip. We just got back, and I'm still buzzing with excitement from all the fun things we did!

We visited the beautiful beaches in Goa this year. The water was crystal clear, and the sand was so soft. I learned how to build huge sandcastles, and Dad helped me collect some pretty seashells for my collection. One day, we even saw dolphins jumping in the waves during a boat ride—it was magical!

We also tried some local food that was so delicious! I loved the spicy curries and sweet coconut desserts. Mom taught me how to say "thank you" in Konkani, which the locals really appreciated. We explored the local markets too, and I bought a small colorful bracelet for you, Grandma. I can't wait to give it to you in person!

My favorite part was the evening walks by the shore, watching the sun set into the sea with so many colors lighting up the sky. We took lots of pictures, and I'll show them all when we meet next.

I thought of you both so many times and wished you could be there with us. I know you would have loved the fresh air and beautiful views. I'll treasure these memories forever, but I hope we can all travel together soon.

Give my love to everyone at home. I can't wait to see you again and tell you more stories!

With lots of love,
