

Character Reference Letter for College Admission

A character reference letter for college admission is a written recommendation that highlights an applicant's personal qualities, integrity, and suitability for a college program. This letter is typically written by a teacher, employer, or mentor who can attest to the student's work ethic, responsibility, and positive traits. An example might include a teacher describing the student's dedication to studies, leadership skills in group projects, and commitment to community service, which together demonstrate the applicant's readiness and potential for success in higher education.
