

This sample cover letter with gap in employment to travel provides a professional and positive explanation for career breaks taken to explore new cultures and gain valuable life experiences. It highlights the applicant's transferable skills, adaptability, and renewed motivation to contribute effectively to the prospective employer. This template helps job seekers confidently address employment gaps, turning travel experiences into strengths that enhance their candidacy.

Sample Cover Letter

[Your Name]
[Your Address]
[City, State ZIP Code]
[Email Address]
[Phone Number]
[Date]

[Hiring Manager's Name]
[Company Name]
[Company Address]
[City, State ZIP Code]

Dear [Hiring Manager's Name],

I am writing to express my interest in the [Job Title] position at [Company Name], as advertised on [where you found the job posting]. With [number] years of experience in [Your Industry/Field], combined with a recent career break to travel internationally, I bring a unique perspective and a renewed commitment to contributing to your team.

From [start date] to [end date], I took time away from my professional career to travel extensively across [regions/countries visited]. This decision allowed me to immerse myself in new cultures, adapt to unfamiliar environments, and develop valuable skills such as problem-solving, communication across diverse backgrounds, and adaptability. My experiences have broadened my global perspective and enhanced my ability to quickly adapt to dynamic and evolving situations.

During my travels, I continued to cultivate my professional skills by [mention any relevant activities, such as volunteering, online courses, remote consulting, or language learning]. These experiences have reinforced my organizational abilities, initiative, and resilience-qualities that align well with the requirements of the [Job Title] position.

I am excited about the opportunity to bring my skills and newly gained perspectives to [Company Name]. I am confident that my background, combined with my commitment to continuous learning and development, will allow me to contribute positively to your team.

Thank you for considering my application. I look forward to the opportunity to discuss how my experiences can add value to [Company Name]. Please find my resume attached for your review.

Sincerely,
[Your Name]