

Dear Sarah,

I hope this letter finds you well and enjoying your summer break! I just had to write and tell you about the wonderful holiday I spent at my grandparents' house last week-it was truly unforgettable!

From the moment I arrived, the whole house seemed alive with warmth and laughter. Grandma greeted me with her famous chocolate cake (you know the one I adore), and Grandpa was already planning our outdoor adventures. Every morning, I woke up to the delicious smell of freshly baked bread and the gentle sound of birds chirping in the garden outside.

My favorite part was spending time in the garden with Grandpa. We planted some tomato and basil seeds together, and he taught me so much about looking after the plants. We even picked some juicy strawberries in the afternoon-sweetest I ever tasted! In the evenings, everyone would gather around the old wooden table for dinner. Grandma's cooking is just magical-her homemade pasta and apple pie are the best!

After dinner, we sat in the cozy living room, listening to Grandpa's stories from when he was young. Sometimes we'd play board games, and sometimes Grandma would show me old photo albums, laughing at the funny memories they hold.

It all felt so comforting and special. I'm truly grateful for the time I spent there; my grandparents always make me feel so loved. I can't wait to visit them again!

How was your holiday? Write back soon-I'd love to hear all about it!

With lots of love,
Emily
