

Hey [Sibling's Name],

Hope you're doing well! It's been a while since we caught up, so I thought I'd send a quick update about what's been going on with the family lately. There's always something new happening around here, and I can't wait to fill you in!

Mom and Dad are doing great. Mom finally finished her herb garden, and she's super proud of it-you know how excited she gets about her plants. Dad's been experimenting in the kitchen again, and last weekend he made that spicy lasagna you love. He says he'll make it again when you're home next!

[Youngest sibling or relative] scored their first goal in soccer last week, and the whole family went wild cheering from the sidelines. You should have seen their face-total pride and a bit of embarrassment from all the attention! Also, [relative] graduated last month, and the ceremony was so emotional. We took plenty of photos, and I'll send some your way soon.

As for me, I've been keeping busy with work/school and hanging out with friends when I can. I recently picked up a new hobby-[mention hobby, e.g., learning to play the guitar]-and I'm getting better, though you'd probably laugh at my attempts for now!

We all miss you and can't wait until you're back for a visit. Let us know how things are on your end too. Everyone sends their love, and we talk about you all the time (in a good way, of course!).

Take care, and write back when you get the chance!

Love,
[Your Name]
