

Hey [Classmate's Name],

Hope you're doing well! With summer coming up, I was thinking it could be awesome if we did some volunteering together. I have a few ideas I wanted to run by you.

How about we help out at the local animal shelter? I think spending time with the animals and helping around could be a lot of fun. Another idea is joining a community gardening project-I've heard they're always looking for extra hands, and we could learn a thing or two about plants! We could also volunteer at the food bank to help support people in need.

I think these are all great ways to use our time, meet new people, and actually make a difference this summer. What do you think? If you have any other suggestions, let me know-I'd love to hear them!

Talk soon,
