

Dear Alex,

I hope this letter finds you well! I've just returned from the most amazing summer vacation and couldn't wait to tell you all about it.

This year, my family and I decided to visit the beautiful coastal town of Seaview. From the moment we arrived, I fell in love with the sunny beaches, crystal-clear water, and friendly people everywhere. Our days were packed with so many fun activities-I tried jet skiing for the first time (it was both thrilling and a bit scary!), built sandcastles with my little sister, and went on a boat ride to see dolphins leaping out of the water. We even took a hike up Sunset Hill, where the view of the ocean at dusk was absolutely breathtaking!

In the evenings, we enjoyed delicious seafood at local restaurants and strolled through the bustling night markets. I bought some cool souvenirs to remind me of the trip. But honestly, what made it truly special was spending time outdoors with my family, laughing and making unforgettable memories together.

This vacation was such a refreshing break from routine, and I came back feeling so relaxed and happy. You should definitely plan a similar getaway-maybe we could even organize a trip together next summer! Let me know what you think.

Take care and write soon. I'd love to hear what you've been up to!

Your friend,

Jamie
