

Dear Sam,

I hope this letter finds you in great spirits! I just had to write to you about the amazing time I had at our school's Annual Sports Day last week-it was easily my favorite school event ever!

The whole field was decorated with colorful banners and balloons, and the excitement in the air was infectious. Everyone, from the teachers to the students, was buzzing with energy. I participated in the 100-meter race, and although I didn't win, the cheering from my friends made me feel like a champion. It was so motivating to see all of us supporting one another, laughing, and celebrating each race and game.

After the races, we had a fun relay event, and I teamed up with friends from my class. We might not have set any records, but we definitely had the loudest fans! There was delicious food and music playing, which made the entire day feel like a festival. Even our principal joined in the three-legged race, which had everyone in splits.

I honestly wish you could have been there, Sam-it was so much fun sharing these moments with friends. I felt so proud of our team spirit and the sense of belonging it brought. Days like this make me love my school even more.

Let me know about any fun school events you've had lately! Hope to hear from you soon.

Best wishes,

Alex
