

Dear Grandma and Grandpa,

I hope this letter finds you both in good health and spirits! I'm so excited to tell you all about our recent holiday at the beach-it was truly unforgettable.

We stayed near the seaside, and every morning, the sound of gentle waves woke me up. The sand was warm and soft under my feet, perfect for building the biggest sandcastles ever! I even tried making a moat around one of them, and it actually filled up with seawater when the tide came in.

Swimming in the ocean was amazing. The water was cool and refreshing, and I tried to catch the little fish that swam near the shore, but they were way too fast for me. Mom and Dad joined me, and we played lots of games in the water. I also collected some beautiful seashells-some are pink and shiny, and I can't wait to show them to you!

One evening, we watched the sunset together. The sky turned orange and pink, and it looked like a painting. We even had ice creams as we sat on the sand, laughing and talking about our day.

I really wish you had been there with us. I miss you both and hope I can visit again soon to tell you even more stories. Sending you lots of love and warm hugs!

Your loving grandchild,
