

Informal Letter Sample: Congratulating a Friend on Academic Achievement

Dear Alex,

I just heard the fantastic news about your results, and I couldn't be happier for you! Congratulations on your amazing academic achievement! All those long nights and countless hours in the library have truly paid off, and you absolutely deserve this success.

I still remember the times we would study together, sharing tips and encouraging each other to keep going. Your hard work, determination, and passion for learning have always inspired me, and I feel so proud to call you my friend.

This is just the beginning of many more achievements to come. I can't wait to see all the incredible things you'll accomplish in the future. Let's celebrate soon - you've earned it!

Wishing you even more success and happiness ahead.

Cheers,
Jamie
