

Dearest Priya,

I hope this letter finds you in great spirits! I have some super exciting news that I just couldn't wait to share with you. Our family is finally going on a vacation together next month, and guess what? We're heading to Goa!

We've been talking about this trip for ages, and it's finally happening. Mom's already planning our itinerary, and I think she's more excited than any of us! We're going to spend a week there, and there's so much we're looking forward to – lazy days at the beach, swimming in the sea, visiting the old forts, and of course, trying all that mouthwatering Goan food (I can almost taste the seafood already!).

The best part? We've booked a cute little cottage right next to the ocean. I can't wait to wake up to the sound of waves every morning. Dad promised he's going to teach us how to surf-let's see how that goes! Oh, and we're planning a dolphin-spotting boat ride, too. I keep wishing you could join us. It would be so much more fun and full of giggles with you around!

I'll take loads of pictures and save some crazy stories for you. Maybe next year we can plan a joint trip with both our families-imagine the fun!

Let me know how everything is on your end. Miss you loads and can't wait to catch up!

With lots of love,
Anushka
