Hey [Friend's Name],

I hope you're doing awesome! With summer just around the corner, I've been thinking it would be amazing to go on an adventure and make the most out of the break. I wanted to share some summer trip ideas that popped into my head - let me know what you think!

First up, how about a road trip to the beach? We could hit up that coastal town we always talk about, spend our mornings swimming and our afternoons chilling in cute beachside cafes. At night, we could have bonfires, play music, and just enjoy the vibe.

If you're up for something different, maybe a mountain getaway? We could go hiking, try ziplining (if you're feeling brave!), and just soak in all the fresh air. Plus, I heard there are some gorgeous cabins with epic sunrise views - perfect for some much-needed relaxation and laughs.

For a bigger adventure, how about a quick trip to a new city? We could explore museums, try the local street food, and snap a ton of photos. It would be such a blast discovering new places and just wandering with no plan!

Wherever we go, I think the main things to pack would be comfy shoes, a good camera, sunscreen, and a solid playlist. I can already imagine how much fun we'd have - it would be the perfect break from routine, and we'd collect so many memories.

Let me know what you think, or if you have any other ideas! I can't wait to start planning something epic together. Talk soon!

Your friend,
