

Hey [Cousin's Name],

I hope this letter finds you well! I just got back from the most incredible adventure abroad and couldn't wait to tell you all about it. You know how much I've always talked about wanting to see new places-well, this trip was everything I dreamed of and more.

My first stop was [Destination]. The streets were so lively, bursting with colorful markets and the friendliest people. I tried some amazing street food-imagine the spiciest noodles you've ever had, but somehow they were absolutely delicious! I even learned a few local phrases, though I'm pretty sure my accent made everyone smile.

One of the highlights was hiking up the famous [Landmark or Place]. The view from the top was breathtaking. I wish you could've seen the sunset with me-it was like the sky had been painted just for us. I met some travelers from all over the world, and we ended up sharing stories and laughs late into the night.

There were definitely moments outside my comfort zone (like getting lost in a winding old town!), but each challenge made the adventure even more memorable. I even tried [Unique Activity or Food]-I know you'd be proud!

I'm already dreaming about our next trip together. Maybe we can pick a new spot on the map and create our own adventure. Let me know what's new with you-I miss our chats and can't wait to catch up more.

Sending you lots of love (and a few souvenirs!),
[Your Name]
