

Dear Grandma,

I hope this letter finds you in the best of health and spirits. I have some wonderful news to share with you-I've passed my exams!

All the late nights and hard work have finally paid off. There were times when I felt really challenged, but remembering your encouraging words and loving support kept me going. I couldn't have done it without you always cheering me on, whether on the phone or through your thoughtful letters. Thank you so much for believing in me, even when I doubted myself.

Getting these results filled me with so much joy and relief. I kept thinking about how proud you would be. I'm really excited to celebrate this success with you soon-maybe we can bake our favorite cake together, just like we used to when I was younger!

I feel truly grateful for having such an amazing grandma. Your love and faith in me mean the world, and I hope I've made you as happy as you've made me. Can't wait to see you and give you the biggest hug ever!

With lots of love,

Your Grandchild,
