

Dear [Friend's Name],

I hope this letter finds you in great spirits! I just got back from an unforgettable holiday with my cousins, and I couldn't wait to tell you all about it.

This year, we decided to spend our vacation in the hills. The minute we reached, the cool breeze and the lush green surroundings made me feel like I'd stepped into a painting! Every day was packed with adventures-right from morning nature walks to late-night games and gossip sessions.

One of the highlights was our trek to the old waterfall. We giggled and slipped a lot on the way, but finally reaching the top and splashing around was totally worth it. I also tried learning to ride my cousin's bicycle on the slopes-let's just say I have a few bruises, but lots more laughs to remember! Evenings were the best, sitting around a bonfire, roasting marshmallows, and telling spooky stories. I almost screamed at the sound of a fox-my cousins still tease me about it!

The food was amazing too. My aunt made her special pancakes every morning, and we had friendly fights over the last piece. We even visited a nearby fair where we rode the Ferris wheel and bought handmade souvenirs. It felt so good to spend time together, sharing old memories and making new ones.

I wish you were there with us; it would have been even more epic! Can't wait to catch up with you and show you all the crazy pictures we took. Write back soon-I want to hear everything about your holidays!

Take care and miss you loads!

Yours,
[Your Name]
