

Dear Uncle,

I hope this letter finds you in great health and good spirits! I was just thinking about all our family vacations, and I wanted to share some of my favorite holiday destinations with you, as I know we both love to travel and explore new places.

One destination that has always fascinated me is Goa. The beautiful beaches, the sound of waves crashing at sunset, and the lively street markets make it a place I could visit again and again. I especially loved the local Goan cuisine-those spicy prawn curries and sweet bebinca were just delicious!

Another place I absolutely loved was Manali. The snow-capped mountains, cool air, and peaceful valleys are truly mesmerizing. I remember taking long walks along the river, watching paragliders soar above, and enjoying hot momos at small roadside stalls. The local people were so warm and welcoming, and I even tried my hand at river rafting!

Closer to home, I also adore visiting Kerala, especially the serene backwaters near Alleppey. Cruising on a houseboat, surrounded by lush green paddy fields and coconut palms, was such a relaxing experience. The cultural performances and the delicious traditional food added to the magic of the place.

There are so many more places on my bucket list, but these are some of the spots I cherish the most. I'd love to know about your favorite holiday destinations too. Maybe we could even plan a trip together soon!

Take care and write back soon.

With love,
